

Nena Nenovska Gjorgjievska was born on the 3rd of December 1985. She is a lawyer by profession, graduated by the Faculty of Law "Justinian Prima" at the University "St. Cyril and Methodius" in Skopje. She continued her postgraduate education at the United Nations Interregional Crime and Research Institute in Turin, Italy, which offers a joint study program with the University of Turin. She successfully defended her master's thesis entitled as "Comparative analysis of the definitions of terrorism in different international conventions" in July 2010, thus receiving a Master's degree in law in the field of international crime and justice.

Her educational process continues in September 2013 when she enrolled in the doctoral studies program at the UNESCO Department of International Studies and Research, in the scientific field of international relations and conflict management, at the Faculty of Philosophy at the University of "St. Cyril and Methodius" in Skopje. On July 13, 2022, she successfully defended her doctoral dissertation entitled as "The impact of the armed conflicts on refugee crisis in the Middle East and the Balkan countries responses", which earned her the scientific degree of PhD of Peace and Development Studies.

Nena has 13 years of work experience in the private and public sector. Her experience in the Secretariat for European Affairs and the Insurance Supervision Agency contributed to spread her contacts around the international institutions. After her 10-year career in the public sector, Nena moved to the private sector and is currently employed at the Memorial centre Foundation "Nikola Kljusev" as a legal advisor, researcher and project coordinator. In the course of her work, she contacts a large number of colleagues from the country and abroad.

Nena Nenovska is actively engaged in scientific research work, participation in national and international scientific conferences in the field of international relations, as well as publication of scientific papers in domestic and international scientific journals.

In addition to her educational and work commitments, Nena is a wife and caring mother of 2 minor children.